CORRESPONDENCE

CARDINALITY

An illustration of two hands against a pink background. The left hand is upright with fingers spread, and the right hand is positioned to its right, with the index finger pointing towards the left hand's index finger. Above the fingers are colorful numbers: a blue '1' above the left thumb, a purple '2' above the left index finger, a pink '3' above the left middle finger, a yellow '4' above the left ring finger, and a green '5' above the left pinky finger. The right hand's fingers are not numbered.

CONSTRUCTING SETS

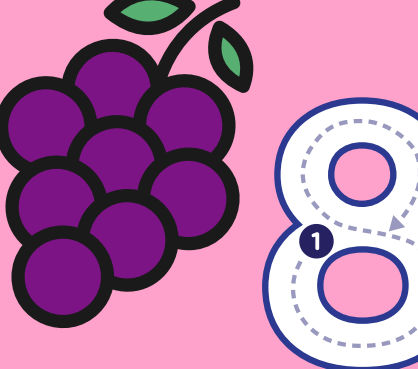

"I built a tower of 5 blocks."

DATA

My goal by the end of the year is to represent, analyze, and discuss data that is represented in different ways. I will also begin to predict the results of data.

QUESTIONS TO ASK ME

"I found 8 grapes in my bunch!"
